6. Subject to the provision of Section 80 of the Act, the Company shall have the power to issue Preference Shares which are or, at the option of the Company, are liable to be redeemed, and the Resolution authorizing such issue shall prescribe the manner, terms and conditions of redemption.

III. SHARES

7. Subjection to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the Capital of the Company for the time being (including any shares forming part of any increased capital of the Company) shall be under the control of the Board who may allot or otherwise dispose off the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at part or (Subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 79 of the Act) at a discount and at such times as it may from time to time think fit and proper and, with the consent of the General Meeting, give to any person the option to call for or be allotted any class of shares of the Company either at par or at a premium or Subject as aforesaid at a discount, such option being exercisable at such times and for such consideration as the Board thinks fit.

7A. The company shall have power subject to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Act, If and when any statutory amendment thereto for the time being or any re-enactment thereof empowers the company so to do, to purchase / acquire any of its own fully paid shares, whether or not they are redeemable.

7B (a) Where it is proposed to increase the subscribed Capital of the Company by allotment of further shares, whether out of unissued share capital or out of increased share capital then such further shares shall be offered to the persons who, at the date of the offer, are holders of the equity shares of the Company, in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit to the capital paid up on these shares at that date. Such offer shall be made by a notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time as specified under the Companies Act from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to have been declined. After the expiry of the time specified in the notice, aforesaid or on receipt of earlier intimation from the person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose them off in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceeding subclause, the Company may-

- (i) by a special resolution, or
- (ii) where no such special resolution is passed, if the votes cast whether on a show of hands, or on a poll, (as the case may be) in favour of the proposal contained in the resolution moved in that general meeting (including the casting vote, if any, of the Chairman) by members who, being entitled to do so, vote in person, or where proxies are allowed, by proxy exceed the votes, if any, cast against the proposal by members so entitled and voting and the Central Government is satisfied, on an application made by the Board of Directors in this behalf, that the proposal is most beneficial to the Company, offer on preferential allotment basis or otherwise in such manner as it may decide further shares to any person or persons, and such person or persons may or may not include the persons who at the date of the offer, are the holders of the equity shares of the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause(a) above, but subject however to Section 81(3) of the Act, the Company may increase its subscribed capital on exercise of an option attached to the debentures issued or loans raised by the Company to convert such debentures or loans into shares, or to subscribe for shares in the Company.

IV. PAYMENT OF COMMISSION AND BROKERAGE

8. (1) The Company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by Section 76, provided that the rate percent or the amount of the Commission paid or agreed to be paid shall disclosed in the manner required by that section.

- 13. The shares in the capital shall be numbered progressively according to their several denominations, and except in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, no share shall be sub-divided.
- 14. Subject to the provisions of Act, and of these Articles the Board may allot and issue shares in the capital of the Company as payment or part payment for any property sold or transferred, goods or machinery supplied or for services rendered to the Company either in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business and any shares which may be so allotted may be issued as fully paid up shares and if so issued, shall be deemed to be fully paid up shares.

15. (1) Where the Company issues shares at a premium whether for cash or otherwise, a sum equal to the aggregate amount or value of the premium shall be transferred to an account, to be called "Share Premium Account" and the provisions of the Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of the Company shall, except as provided in this clause, apply as; if the share premium account were paid-up share capital of the Company.,
- (2) The share premium account may, notwithstanding sub-clause (1) hereof, be applied by the Company;
- (a) in paying up unissued shares of the Company to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares;
- (b) in writing off the preliminary expenses of the Company;
- (c) in writing off the expenses of, or the commission paid or discount allowed on any issued shares or debentures of the Company, and
- (d) in providing for the premium payable on the redemption of any redeemable preference shares or of any debentures of the Company.
16. If by the terms of issue of any shares or otherwise the whole or any part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by installments at a fixed time, every such installment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being and from time to time is the registered holder of the shares or his legal representatives.
17. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, any application signed by or on behalf of an applicant for shares in the Company followed by an allotment of any share therein, shall be an acceptance of shares within the meaning of these Articles, and every person who thus or otherwise accepts any shares and whose name is on the Register of Members shall, for the purposes of these Articles, be a member, provided that no share shall be applied for or allotted to a minor, insolvent or person of unsound mind.
18. The money (if any) which the Board of Directors shall on the allotment of any shares being made by it, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by it, shall immediately on the inscription of the name of the allottee in the Register of Members as the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee thereof, and shall be paid by him accordingly.
19. Every member, or his heirs, executors or administrators, shall pay to the Company the proportion of the capital represented by his share or shares which may, for the time being, remain unpaid thereon, in such amounts at such time or times and in such manner, as the Board of Directors shall, from time to time, in accordance with the Company's regulations require or fix for the payment thereof.
20. The Company shall unless the conditions of issue otherwise provide within three months after allotment of any of its shares or debentures and within two months after the application for the transfer of any such shares or debentures, complete and have ready for delivery the certificate of all shares and debentures allotted or transferred.
21. Every member or allottee of shares shall be entitled, without payment, to receive one or more Certificate in the marketable lot for all the shares of the same class registered in his name and specifying the name of the person in whose favour it is issued, the share certificate number and the amount paid up thereon. Such certificate shall be issued only in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Board and on surrender to the company of its letter of allotment or its Fractional Coupons of requisite Value, Save in cases of issues against Letters of Acceptance or for renunciation or in cases of issue of bonus shares PROVIDED THAT if the Letter of Allotment is lost or destroyed the Board may impose such reasonable terms. If any as it thinks fit, as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses incurred by the company in investigating the evidence. If any member shall require additional certificates he shall pay for each additional certificate (not being in the marketable lot) such sum not exceeding One Rupee as the Board shall determine. 25. (1) The Company shall not be bound to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or (except only as is by these presents otherwise expressly provided) any right in respect of a share other than an absolute right thereto, in accordance with these presents in the persons from time to time registered as the holder thereof, but the Board shall be at liberty at its sole discretion to register any share in the joint names of two or more persons or the survivors of them.

(2) Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the persons whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and accordingly shall not (except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction Or as by Law required) be bound to recognise any benami, trust or equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim or claims or right to or interest in such share on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or implied notice thereof.
26. Shares may be registered in the name of an incorporated company or other body corporate but not in the name of a person of unsound mind or in the name of any firm or partnership.
 - A. Either the Company or the investor may exercise an option to issue, deal in, hold the securities (including shares) with a Depository in electronic form and the Certificates in respect thereof shall be dematerialized, in which event the rights and obligations of the parties concerned and matters connected therewith or incidental thereof, shall be governed by the provisions of the Depositories Act, as amended from time to time or any statutory modification thereto or re-enactment thereof.
 - B. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the company shall be entitled to dematerialize its existing securities, rematerialize its securities held in the Depositories and / or offer its fresh securities in a dematerialized form pursuant to the Depositories Act, and the rules framed thereunder, if any.

- C. Even person subscribed to or holding securities of the Company shall have the option to receive security certificates or to hold the securities with a Depository.

If a person opts to hold his security with Depository, the Company shall intimate such Depository the details of allotment of the Security and on receipt of the information, the Depository shall enter in its record the name of the allottees as the Beneficial owner of the security.

- D. All the securities held by a depository shall be dematerialized and be in tangible form. Nothing contained in Sections 153, 153A, 153B, 187B, 187C and 372 of the Act, shall apply to a Depository in respect of the securities held by it on behalf of the Beneficial Owner.

- E. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act, or these Articles, a Depository shall be deemed to be registered owner for the purposes of effecting transfer of ownership of security on behalf of the Beneficial Owner.

(b) Save as otherwise provided in (a) above, the Depository as the registered owner of the securities shall not have any voting rights or any other rights in respect of the security held by it.

(c) Every person holding securities of the Company and whose name is entered as the Beneficial Owner in the records of the Depository shall be deemed to be a member of the Company. The Beneficial Owner of securities shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits and be subject to all the liabilities in respect of his securities which are held by a depository.

- F. Except as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the Company shall be entitled to treat the person whose name appears on the Register of Members as the holder of any share or where the name appears as the Beneficial Owner of shares in the records of the Depository as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not be bound to recognize any benami trust or equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or (Except only as is by these Articles otherwise expressly provided) any right in respect of a share other than absolute right thereon in accordance with these Articles, on the part of any other person whether or not it has express or implied notice thereon, but the Board shall be entitled at their sole discretion to register any share in the joint names of any two or more persons or the survivors of them.

- G. Every Depository shall furnish to the Company information about the transfer of securities in the name of the Beneficial Owner at such intervals and in such manner as may be specified by the byelaws and the Company in the behalf.

- H. Upon receipt of certificate of securities on surrender by a person who has entered into an agreement with the Depository through a participant, the Company shall cancel such certificate and substitute in its records the name of Depository as the registered owner in respect of the said securities and shall also inform the Depository accordingly.

- I. If a Beneficial Owner seeks to opt out of a Depository in respect of any security, the Beneficial Owner shall inform the Depository accordingly.

The Depository shall on receipt of information as above make appropriate entries in its records and shall inform the Company.

The Company shall within thirty (30) days of the receipt of intimation from the Depository and on fulfillment of such condition and payment of such fees as may be specified by the regulations, issue the certificate of securities to the Beneficial Owner or the transferee as the case may be.

- J. Notwithstanding anything in the Act, or these Articles to the contrary, where securities are held in a Depository, the record of the beneficial ownership may be served by such Depository on the Company by means of electronic mode or by delivery of floppies or discs.
- K. Except as specifically provided in these Articles, the provisions relating to joint holders of shares, calls, lien or shares, forfeiture of shares and transfer and transmission of shares shall be applicable to shares held in Depository so far as they apply to shares in physical form subject to the provisions of the Depository Act.
- L. Notwithstanding anything in the Act, or these Articles where securities are dealt with by a Depository, the Company shall intimate the details thereof to the Depository immediately on allotment of such securities.
- M. The shares in the capital shall be numbered progressively accordingly to their several denominations provided, however that the provisions relating to progressive numbering shall not apply to the shares of the Company which are dematerialized may be dematerialized in future or issued in future in dematerialized form. Except in the manner herein before mentioned, no share shall be sub-divided. Every forfeited or surrendered share held in material form shall continue to bear the number by which the same was originally distinguished.
- N. The Company shall cause to keep a Register and index of Members and a Register and Index of Debenture holders in accordance with Section 151 and 152 of the Act respectively, and the Depositories Act, with details of shares and debentures held in material and dematerialized forms in any media as may be permitted by law including in any form of electronic media. The Register and Index of Beneficial Owners maintained by a Depository under Section 11 of the Depositories Act, shall be deemed to be Register and Index of Members and Register and Index of Debenture holders, as the case may be for the purpose of the Act. The Company shall have the power to keep in any state or country outside India a branch Register of Members resident in that state or country.
- O. The Company shall keep a Register of Transfers and shall have recorded therein fairly and distinctly particulars of every transfer or transmission of any share held in material form.
- P.

 - (ii) Where the shares in, or Debentures of the Company are held by more than one person, jointly, the joint holders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner under Section 109A of the Act, a person to whom all the shares or Debenture of the Company shall vest in the event of death of all the joint holders.
 - (iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of shares in, or debentures of the Company where a nomination made in the prescribed manner under Section

109A of the Act, purports to confer on any person the right to vest the Shares in or Debenture of the Company, the nominees shall, on the death of the Shareholder or holder of Debentures of The Company, or as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders, become entitled to all the rights in the shares or debentures of the Company, or as the case may be, all the joint holders, in relation to such Shares in, or Debentures of the Company to the exclusion of all other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner under Section 109A of the Act.

- (iv) Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares, or holder of Debentures, to make the nomination to appoint, in the prescribed manner under Section 109A of the Act, any person to become entitled to Shares in, or Debentures of the Company, in the event of his death, during the minority.

VII. CALLS

- 27. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Board may from time to time make such calls on uniform basis as it thinks fit, upon the members in respect of all money unpaid on the shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) held by them and not by conditions of allotments thereof made payable at fixed time and each such member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the time and place appointed by the Board. A call may be made payable by installments.
- 28. The joint holders of shares shall severally as well as jointly be liable for payment of all installments and calls due in respect of such shares.
- 29. (1) A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising such call was passed unless the same is expressly made effective on any other date under such resolution.

(2) Not less than 30 days notice of any Call shall be given specifying the place and time of payment and to whom such call shall be paid provided that Board may subject to Section 91 of the Act by notice in writing to a member, revoke the call or extend the time for payment thereof.
- 30. If by the means of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by installments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, every such amount of instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by Board and of which due notice had been given and provisions herein contained in respect of calls for future or otherwise shall relate to such amount or installment accordingly,
- 31. If the sum payable in respect of any call or installment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof the holder for the time being of the share in respect of which the call shall have been made or the installment shall be due shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 12 percent per annum (or at such other rate as the Board may determine) from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of the interest wholly or in part.
- 32. The Board may receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made the Company may pay interest at such rate not exceeding 12 percent per annum or as the member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends or participate in the profits of the company. Money so paid excess of the amount of calls until appropriated towards satisfaction of any calls shall be treated as advance of the Company and not a part of capital be re-payable at any time if the Directors so decide.

IX. FORFEITURE

33. If any member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call, or instalment or any money due in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or other money remains unpaid serve a notice on such member or on the persons (if any) entitled to the share by transmission, requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all the expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
34. The notice shall name a day (not being less than 30 days from the date of notice) and a place on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non payment on or before the time and at the place appointed, the share in respect of which such call was made or installments is payable will be liable to forfeited.
35. If the requirement of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payments of calls or installment, interest, and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to the effect and the forfeiture shall be recorded in the Directors' minute book. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
36. When any shares shall have been so forfeited notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and entry of the forfeiture with date thereof shall forth-with be made in the register of the members.
37. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and the Directors may sell, reallocate or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit. The Board may, at any, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as it thinks fit.
38. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member of the Company in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall notwithstanding the forfeiture remain liable to pay to the Company all calls instalments, interest, and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares at the date of the forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment at the rate of 12 percent per annum and the Directors may enforce the payment thereof, if they think fit.
39. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the, Company in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the shares, except only such of those rights as by the Articles are expressly saved.
40. A duly certified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the Company and that certain shares in the company have been duly, forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and such declaration and the receipt of the company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares, on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and, the persons to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as holder thereof and shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money, nor, shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceeding in reference to such forfeiture, sale of disposition.

X. LIEN ON SHARES

41. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid up shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and no equitable interest in any shares shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 7 hereof will have full effect. Unless otherwise agreed the registration of a transfer shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien if any on such shares. The Directors may at any time declare any shares wholly or in part to be exempt from the provision of this clause.
42. No member shall exercise any voting right in respect of any shares registered in his name on which any calls or other sums, presently payable by him, have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has exercised any right of lien.
43. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien.

Provided that no sale shall be made

- (a) Unless a sum in respect for which the lien exists is partly payable: or
 - (b) Until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the register holder for the time being of the share of the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.
44. The net proceeds of any such sale shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities of engagements of such member, his executors, administrators or representative and the residue (if any) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the sale.
 45. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing lien in purported exercise of the power herein before given the director may cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register of member in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, nor to the application of the purchase money and after his name has been entered in the register in respect of such shares, invalidity of the sale shall not be impeached by any persons, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only.

XI. TRANSFER

46. Save as provided in Section 108 of the Act, no transfer of shares in or debentures of the Company shall be registered unless as proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of or if no such certificate is in existence, the Letter of Allotment of the shares. The instrument of transfer of any shares in or debenture of the Company shall specify, the name, father's husband's name, address, occupation, of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of members. Each signature to such transfer shall duly attested by the signature of the witness who shall add his address and occupation.

47. Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made either by the transferor or the transferee. Where such application is made by the transferor and relates to a partly paid share, no registration shall be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 110 of the Act. Subject to the provisions of Articles hereof, if the transferee makes no objection within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice the Company shall enter in the register of member the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration was made by the transferee.
48. Before registering any transfer tendered for registration the Company may, if it thinks fit, give notice by letter posted in the ordinary course to the registered holder, that such transfer deed has been lodged and that unless objection is made the transfer will be registered and if such registered holder fails to lodge an objection in writing at the office of the Company within ten days from the posting of such notice to him he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of the said transfer. Where no notice is received by the registered holder the Company shall be deemed to have decided not to give notice and in any event the non-receipt by the registered holder or and notice shall not entitle him to make any claim of any kind against the Company or the Board in respect of such non-receipt.
49. Neither the Company nor its Board shall incur any liability for registering or effecting a transfer of shares apparently made by competent parties, although the same may, by reason of any fraud or other cause not known to the Company or its Board, be legally in operative or insufficient to pass the property in the shares or debentures proposed or professed to be transferred and although the transfer may as between the transferor and transferee be set aside and notwithstanding that the Company may have notice that such instrument of transfer was signed or executed and delivered by the transferor in blanks as to the name of the transferee or the particulars of the shares transferred, or otherwise in defective manner. In every such case the person registered as transferee, his executors, administrators or assigns alone shall be entitled to be recognised as the holder of such share or debenture and the previous holder of such share or debentures shall, so far as the company is concerned, be deemed to have transferred his whole time thereto.
50. Transfer shall not be made to minor or person of unsound mind.
51. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office for registration, accompanied by the certificate of the shares or if no such certificate is in existence, by the Letter of Allotment of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares, the transferee shall (subject to the right of the Board to decline to register hereinafter mentioned) be registered as a member in respect of such shares. The Board may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to it of loss or destruction.
52. All instrument of transfer shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Board may decline to register shall be returned to the person depositing the same.

Provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the shares.

53. The Board may decline to recognise any instruments of transfer if :

- (a) The instrument of transfer is not accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other, evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor;
 - (b) The instrument of transfer is in respect of more than one class of shares; or
 - (c) It is for transfer of any share on which the Company has a lien.
54. The registration of transfer may be suspended after giving due notice at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine.
- Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than forty-five days in any year and not exceeding thirty days at any one time.
55. Share in the Company shall be transferred in the form for the time being prescribed under the rules framed under the Companies Act.

XII. TRANSMISSION

56. The executors or administrators or the holder of a succession certificate in respect of shares of a deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only persons whom the Company shall recognise as having any title to the shares registered in the name of the such member and, in case of the death of any one or more of the joint holder of any registered shares, the survivor shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him joint with any other person. Before recognising any executor or administrator or legal heir the Board may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letter of administration or succession certificate or other legal representation as the case may be, from a competent court.

Provided also that the holder of a succession certificate shall not be entitled to receive any dividends already declared but not and paid to the deceased member unless the succession certificate declares that holder thereof is entitled to receive such dividends.

- A. Nomination of Shares : Every holder of shares in or debentures of the company, may at any time nominate in the prescribed manner, a person to whom his shares in or debentures of the company shall vest in the event of his/her death and such nomination shall be governed by the provisions of Companies Act, 1956 and Rules and Regulation framed thereunder.

"Provided, however, that where a share holder has nominated a person to whom his shares or debentures of the company shall vest in the event of his/her death, the title to the shares / debentures of the deceased holder in such a case shall be governed by the Provision of Companies Act, 1956 and Rules and Regulations framed thereunder."

57. Any person becoming entitled to share in consequence of the death, lunacy or insolvency of member may, upon producing such evidence of his title as the Board thinks sufficient, be registered as a member in respect of such share or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer herein before contained transfer such shares,
58. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company. Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect, either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

59. If the person so becoming entitled to shares under preceding Articles shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to transfer the shares to some other person he shall execute an instrument of transfer in accordance with provisions of these Articles relating to the transfers of shares. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right of transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid.
60. The Articles providing for transfer and transmission of shares, shall mutatis mutandis apply not to the transfer and transmission of debentures of the Company.

XIII. ALTERATION IN CAPITAL

61. The Company in General Meeting may :
 - (a) Increase its authorised share capital by such amount as it thinks expedient by creating new shares.
 - (b) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
 - (c) Cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
 - (d) Subdivide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association subject to the provisions of Section 94 (1) (d) of the Act.
 - (e) Reduce its capital in any manner authorised by Section 100 of the Act.

The power conferred by this Article may be exercised by an ordinary resolution, except in the case of reduction of capital when the exercise of the power in that behalf shall be by a special resolution. The Company shall give due notice to the Registrar of any such alteration in capital.

XIV. STOCKS

62. The Company in General Meeting may convert any paid up shares into stock and re-convert any stock into paid up shares of any denominations.
63. When any share has been converted into stock the holders of such stock may, henceforth, transfer their respective interest therein or any part of such interest, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as would have applied to the transfer of the shares from which the stock arose or, as near thereto as circumstances would admit. The Board may, from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transfer-able, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of the minimum but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
64. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividend and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such part of stock as would not, if existing shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

65. Such of the Articles of the Company (other than those relating to share warrants), as are applicable to paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.

XV. SHARE WARRANTS

66. The Company may issue share warrants subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Sections 114 and 115 and accordingly the Board may in its discretion, with respect to any share which is fully paid up, on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share and authenticated by such evidence (if any) of the share, and the amount of the stamp duty on the warrant and such fee as the Board may from time to time require, issue share warrant.
67. (1) The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the Company and so long as the warrant remains so deposited, the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a meeting of the Company and of attending and voting and exercising the other privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiry of two clear days from the time of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the register of the members as the holder of the share included in the deposited warrant.
- (2) Not more than one person shall be recognised as depositor of the share warrant.
- (3) The Company shall, on two days, written notice, return the deposited share warrant to the depositor.
68. (1) Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided, no person shall, as bearer of a share warrant, sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the Company or attend or vote or exercise any other privilege of a member at a meeting of the Company, or be entitled to receive any notice from the Company,
- (2) The bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in all other respects to the same privileges and advantages as if he were named in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the Company.
69. The Board may, from time to time, make rules as to the terms on which (if it shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be used by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss or destruction.

XVI. GENERAL MEETINGS

70. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
71. (1) The Board may, whenever it think fit, call an extraordinary general meeting.
- (2) If at any time, there are, not within India, Directors, capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum, any Director of the Company may call an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner or as nearly as possible, as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.
